

Friends of the Theatre

Watch this space.....

The above photograph shows a draft of the proposed mural for the front of the Old Gazette Theatre.

On one side the Jester and on the other a scene from a Shakespeare play with our very own Theatre Angel Mary Kell prompting in the corner.

Thank you for keeping your membership up to date.

Reviews: 7.6

<http://www.imdb.com/title/tt0368619/reviews>

This film is about a ship full of women from many areas in Eastern Europe who are travelling to America to an unknown destiny in 1922

Nibbles, a glass of wine and/or coffee will be available before the screening for a donation or bring a small plate to share.

Just a reminder that screenings are now only open to Old Gazette Film Society members. Each member is entitled to bring one guest per year.

New members can join on the night of any screening by paying the appropriate membership fee which allows them to attend any future screenings in that current year free of charge.

Thank You

to Terry Muldoon

For the generous donation of the Super Dooper Mucker Sucker (the vacuum cleaner), we really appreciate your gift!

A Big thanks to Shirley for diligently removing bindis from the grass at the front of the theatre.

And thanks always to those helping to re-locate costumes.
